The members of Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons will give a ministrel show and dance in Union Hall on the evening of Saturday, December 6th.

Rev. Dr. Cook will again officiate at the Episcopal Church next Sunday, both at 11 a. m. and the 5 o'clock vesper service. Dr. Cook is an able speaker.

Auto Collides With Milk Wagon.

Last Monday evening shortly after dark an auto driven by J. Timpson, an employee of the California Telephone and Light Company, collided with J. McLinehan's milk wagon. The collision took place nearly opposite the Catholic Church and was caused by the machine skidding while attempting to pass the wagon. The vehicle was overturned and one of the wheels demolished and as it went over it carried Mr McLinehan with it. He escaped with a slight cut on the head, which was treated by Dr. Thompson. Timpson was driving very slow and carefully at the time his car skidded else the accident would have been more serious. This is the first automobile accident ever recorded inside the city limits of Sonoma.

Mrs. F. Batchelor, accompanied by her son Elmer, left for New York and other eastern cities last Saturday for an extended visit with relatives. She will be joined by another son, Wayne Batchelor, in Denver, Colorado.

Morning worship.

Courage is more than bravery. It is not impulse nor is it action under applause. Courge is not encouraged by sound of trumpet nor is it defeated by want of praise. It is a thing God commands and He gives a reason that makes it appear as a very profitable thing. The more of truth in the life of a man the more courageous he is. We will show you the thing to believe to get it next Sunday at this service.

The Sonoma Y. P. S. C. E. will meet in the church parlor at 6:30 p. m. Miss Marjorie Buchan is the leader.

Evening service at 7:30.

The sermon will be short and the opporunity to sing good rousing hymns will be long. The sermon will teach that we must keep a-deciding which is not like fixedness of the stubborn. Some can decide easily, but what they decide is not worth much. The man who serves a good long training at milling can show you a good job. Sunday evening we will talk about this.

T. M. PRICE, Pastor.

Vaudeville and Christmas Bazar

A splendid vaudeville entertainment will be given next Friday evening in Union Hall by St. Barbara's Guild. There will also be a sale of useful and fancy articles, candy, plum puddings, preserves, jellies, pickles, ice cream and coffee. A cake contest with prizes and auction, will add to the merriment. Dancing will follow the play. Admission 50c.

Hallowe'en High Jinks.

The members of the Congregational church choir were royally entertained at "Bungalow Isnala," on Thursday evening of last week by Marjorie and Ralph Buchan. The evening was spent in executing instrumental and vocal music and playing of appropriate Hallowe'en pranks. INDICTED FOR ILLEGAL REGISTRATION

Jas. A. Landsborough, Reformer and Managing Editor of the Expositor, in the Toils of the Law

One of the most vehement advocates of a clean ballot at the recent Weise recall election, which did not recall anything, was James A. Landsborough, managing editor of the Expositor. He even went so far as to publish the names of 75 or 80 reputable men and women voters who had refrained from registering until the very last moment and attempting to intimidate them from voting by printing in big black type in his paper right over those names the following: "A reward of $25 will be paid for the conviction of anyone who has been guilty of false registration." The bluff did not work as every one whom he sought to intimidate voted because they had the right to do so. This reward business reminded us of the crook who cried, "Stop thief," to cover up his own footsteps while making his get away. Therefore we have no sympathy with James Landsborough, should the charges against him for registering illegally be proven.

It came out in the investigation before the grand jury last Wednesday that Landsborough, who is an alien, registered and voted in the general election held last November but when he presented himself at San Luis precinct to vote at the election on Sept. 16th last he snagged up against Ohas. Potter and James Tate, leading citizens of that precinct, who challenged his citizenship, with the result that he did not vote, although told he could swear in his vote if he dared do it. Rather than do this he quit, as he evidently did not care to add perjury to his other offense. Foreman Robt. P. Hill of Eldridge handed the indictment to Judge Seawell and his honor fixed the amount of bail bonds for the accused and directed Deputy County Clerk Burroughs to issue a bench warrant for the arrest of Landsborough.

The warrant was forwarded to Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan Thursday morning who placed Landsborough under arrest.

Immediately after being taken into custody accompanied by officer Ryan, Landsborough went in search of bondsmen to go on his $5000 bond set by Judge Seawell.

California's New Product

Throughout the Sacramento valley, signs are appearing on warehouses that indicate the coming of an entirely new crop for California. "Rice Storage Warehouses" is the legion they bear, and it is the announcement that the latest experiment in cereals in California has been a success.

Superintendent W. A. Whitney of the Sacramento division of the Southern Pacific Company has returned from a tour over his district and reports that over 150,000 sacks of rice, each weighing 100 pounds, will be produced this year. The center of the industry is around Biggs.

There are now 3,000 acres planted in the southern part of Butte county, and the yield varies from 3,000 to 3,500 pounds per acre, a much larger return than is obtained in the East. The consumption on the Pacific coast is forty-five million pounds annually, so that the growers are not worrying about a market.

Several years ago, the United States Government began experimenting with rice in California. The Watabune, a Japanese variety, has been found the best here. Many of the adobe tracts subject to overflow along the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers can undoubtedly be sown with rice. The best type of soil is a medium loam, containing about fifty-per cent of clay and underlaid with a hard pan or clay layer which is impervious to water.

Get Rich Quick Concern and a Gullible Public.

Every now and then some wild cat, film-flam financial scheme is launched forth in this community to catch suckers. These schemes should be let severly alone, or you surely will get cinched in the end. The latest get rich quck concern that has bobbed up is that of "The National Mercantile Company," of Vancouver, B. C., which has had an agent scouring this valley the past week for suckers. This company sells "investment contracts." It launches a series of 1,000 contracts of the face value of $1,000 each. A purchaser pays for the contract at the rate of $10 down and $10 a month. "As soon as there is $1,000 in the loan fund the holder of contract number one is entitled to borrow $1000 at the rate of three per cent per annum, or receive back all of the money he has paid the company in an addition to a premium of $150. All contracts are taken up in rotation, according to number.

"If there be no lapses, but six contracts will mature the first year," says commissioner Walker. An actuary has figured this out for us. It would take eight years before the one hundredth man can borrow money. Then he would have paid in almost the face value of the contract.

"The company's old contract provided that the first $10 paid on a contract, should go into the expense fund. The new contract leaves this clause out, but contains a contradictory clause which would lead one to believe the first payment still goes to the expense fund. After that 80 per cent of the payment goes into the loan fund, the other 20 per cent going to the expense fund.

"The expense fund amounts to an enormous sum." Walker said: "It is on this item that the officers of the concern make their money.

"The first few persons to buy contracts under this old outlawed game benefit at the expense of the hundreds whose contracts are numbered in three or four figures."

State Building and Loan Commissioner Walker, who is hot on the trail of "The National Merchantile Company," denounces it as operating the biggest flim-flam game that has been played in California in years, and evidently knows whereof he speaks.

This being the case a hint to the wise ought to be sufficient for our people to let all such wild cat schemes alone and put their money into our local banks at 4 per cent per annum or invest it in some legitimate business. If you listen to the wily agents of this concern you surely be buncoed according to Loan Commissioner Walker.

GRAND JURY AIRS ROMAMCE.

The Principals are a Married Capitalist of Stanislaus County and a Nineteen Year Old Girl of Occidental

It is known that the grand jury Tuesday made an investigation of the conduct of Gilbert L. Baker, capitalist, reformer, married and man of affairs of Stanislaus county whose home is at Oakdale, towards Miss Mildred Lewis, a nineteen-year-old girl, who for years has made her home with her mother and aunt near Occidental in this county, says the Press Democrat.

Witnesses connected with the case including the young lady named, her father, Thomas Lewis, Probation Officer Plover and Miss Nellis Scotta, the latter the young lady connected with a branch of the work of the Young Women's Christian Association in San Francisco, were among those noticed entering the grand jury room yesterday morning. The case has attracted much interest here and at Occidental.

According to Baker's own statements to the girl and District Attorney Lea, he is professedly much attached to her and it is said he has avowed his love for her on more than one occasion both by word of mouth and by missives sent on postals and in letters. His endeavors to see the girl here at the Detention Home, where she was taken some time since after her aunt had brought the attentions of Baker to the notice of County Probation Officer Plover, have been spurned by that official.

Baker is a married man and has children. He says he has $100,000 worth of property in Stanislaus county and he has told the girl, so she says, that when he gets a divorce from his present wife he will marry her. He also told District Attorney Lea some time ago that was his intention.

It is also alleged that Baker and the girl met while she was visiting relatives in Stanislaus County and that he afterwards visited her when she returned to her Occidental home and that she saw him on more than one occasion in San Francisco and that once or twice they traveled together to the metropolis. It is alleged that these visits to the metropolis figure strongly in the present investigation. District Attorney Lea brought the matter to the attention of the grand jury.

The girl is said to have received some most ingenious love messages from Baker, some of them written on postals and signed in nom de plume. The news of the man's alleged ardent wooing of the Sonoma county girl will, so it is said, cause no end of a sensation in his home community.

It is understood that the grand jury has the matter under advisement. The out-of-town witnesses returned home yesterday afternoon.

Since the above was in type Baker has been indicted by the grand jury for his offense and is now at liberty on a $5,000 bail bond.

Through freight service that will lop off one hundred miles in distance and twenty-four hours in running time from Kansas City and neighboring points to California has been announced by the Southern and Union Pacific systems. The new route is via Marysville, Kansas, Hastings and Gibbon. It will mean much to California shippers, allowing them more rapid access to and from Eastern markets.

HAD HIS BAIL REDUCED TO $2,500.

Editor Landsborough, Indicted by the Grand Jury for Illegal Registration, is Now Out on Bail

Jas. A. Landsborough, indicted last Tuesday by the Grand Jury for illegal registration and whose bond was placed at $5,000 by Judge Seawell, is now out on bail, with G. S. Harris and Theodor Richards as sureties.

After scouring town and valley last Thursday in a vain attempt to secure bondsmen for $5,000, Landsborough was taken to Santa Rosa by officer Ryan and appeared before Judge Seawell and asked that his bond be reduced to $2,500, as he had two sureties who would qualify in that amount. Judge Seawell took compassion upon the indicted editor and placed the bond at that figure, and the bondsmen above named having qualified he was released from custody to answer later on for his crime.

SCHELLVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. Erhard Steiger visited her old San Francisco home last Sunday.

Miss H. Johnson of the metropolis visited friends here Sunday.

Edgar Clement was up from U. C. and spent the week-end with his folks.

Wm. Kennedy and family have moved to Oakland, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. Wm. Jacobson came up from San Francisco to look over his Schellville property Sunday.

Dr. Harvey, Al Jansen, P. Perrazzo and Mrs. Darling, all of Sonoma, passed through here Sunday en route to the Bay City.

El Verano Development Association.

The El Verano Development Association held a very successful meeting in its club rooms last Thursday evening. The rooms were crowded with members and guests. The principal feature of the evening was the raffling of a large number of articles donated to the association by citizens of the valley. The raffle was a great success and everything was sold out that had been donated from a horse and wagon to canary birds. A neat sum was realized, which will be turned into the treasury of the association to be expended for boosting this valley.

President Jas. Baines was master of ceremonies and at the conclusion of the raffle made a neat speech thanking those present for their kind patronage.

Lovell Valley is Coming to the Fore

The attention of our readers is called to the ad of Rich, Waller Company of San Francisco, which appears on the first page. This prominent real estate firm is offering to rent 300 to 400 acres of first-class hay land in Lovall valley a mile or two east of this city. This is an opportunity that farmers should not overlook. Read the ad and get busy.

Local Brevities

On account of the inclemency of the weather the Saturday night dance in Union Hall has been postponed.

A turkey shoot and raffle will be conducted on the Agnew ranch on the Petaluma road by Conrad Kiser on Sunday, November 23d, to which everybody is invited.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

A rain gauge has been installed and in the future the correct rainfall will be published in these columns.

The rain has put a damper on basket ball practice this week, but as most of the boys are "farmers" they are willing to sacrifice a little practice for the good of the soil.

Paul S. Thomson is again in our midst after undergoing the painful operation of having his tonsils removed. Although he still has a little Missouri drawl in his voice yet, he will be alright in a few days.

Cicero was unable to report the sheet and pillow case dance given by the Junior Class last night, (Friday) but will report it next week. He left this morning for the "Farm" to see his hopes perform.

The school fathers held their regular quarterly meeting in the office last Friday and among other things the plans for our new Auditorium were looked over and discussed. A decision will be rendered in a few days.

Discussion has been hot the last week over the respective merits of the two Rugby teams of Stanford and California. To settle the question many of the students are going down to Stanford next Saturday to see the game.

John's Dream

On October 21st an inspired article appeared in the Sonoma Valley Expositor saying there was talk of a compromise in the suit of the City of Sonoma vs. the S V. W. L. & P. Co.

Wonder where the author got this "line of stuff." Had he been taking in the roadhouses on his "wild goose chase," to Santa Rosa the day previous or was it all a dream? Better change the brand.

HOUSEKEEPERS
Must be Watchful

For great efforts are being made in this vicinity to sell baking powders of inferior class, made from alum acids and lime phosphates, both undesirable to those who require high-grade cream of tartar baking powder to make clean and healthful food.

The official Government tests have shown Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful, grape cream of tartar baking powder, of highest strength, and care should be taken to prevent the substitution of any other brand in its place.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any other baking powder in the world.
